Daniel Kallman's compositions for orchestra, winds, and choir are widely published and have been performed across North America, Europe and East Asia. His steady stream of commissions also includes music for worship, theater, and the young musician. Kallman has composed for the National Symphony Orchestra, the Air Force Academy Band, the National Lutheran Choir, the Minnesota Orchestra, A Prairie Home Companion, and a wide variety of vocal and instrumental ensembles. He has received support from the American Composers Forum, Meet the Composer, and the McKnight and Jerome Foundations.

The Jig is Up, Kallman's most popular work for winds, has received hundreds of performances by college, high school, professional and community bands. His orchestral works have been performed by both amateur and professional ensembles across the country.

Kallman has established a reputation as a composer for the young musician and youth audiences. Pura Vida!, Kallman's multi-movement work written for the Minnesota Orchestra and dancers, introduces Latino styles of music to the young listener. Other compositions have been completed for dozens of ensembles, including the Hong Kong Children's Choir, the Columbus Children's Choir, the Northeast Pennsylvania Choral Society, the Lake Superior Youth Chorus, and several consortium-supported projects.

As a composer of music for worship, Kallman is best known for his liturgical setting "Light of Christ," commissioned for the Lutheran hymnal With One Voice and included in the Presbyterian hymnal Holy Is the Lord. Kallman's church choir anthems, hymn settings and other liturgical service music are sung throughout the country.

Daniel Kallman was born in 1956. He received his musical training at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa and at the University of Minnesota where he studied composition under Dominick Argento and Paul Fetler. The principal publishers of Kallman's music are Shawnee Press and Hal Leonard (children's choir), MorningStar Music (church choir), Boosey and Hawkes (winds and choral), Lauren Keiser Music (orchestral), and Kallman's own publishing company, Kallman Creates Publications.
