

Christ, the Promise of Tomorrow

Christine Kallman

Daniel Kallman

Moderately ♩=66ca. mf

Christ, the Prom - ise of to - mor - row, Prince of storm - y march of dec - ades Like a wreck of hu - man fail - ings, Trust is God who holds the or - der Of both 5

Ag - es, take our hand. Lead us through the com - ing e - ra; Fear - ful, shel - ter you have stood, Faith - ful - ly your arms ex - tend - ing, Bend - ing, spoiled and hopes are few. 'Bold - en us this as - sur - ance: You are time and space a - right, Spins the mar - vels of cre - a - tion In the 9 at the doors we stand. Blind we are be - yond this mo - ment, Sight - less grant - ing all things good. From the hea - ven's fier - y gi - ants To the mak - ing all things new. As par - tak - ers in the prom - ise Of your dark - ness and the light. Praise to God who walks be - side us, Pledg - ing

Text copyright ©2000 Christine Kallman
Music copyright ©2002 Daniel Kallman (BMI) 519 Winona St.
Northfield, MN 55057
507-645-8788